Printing

St Margaret's Academy

Key outcomes

- Build up layers of colours to achieve an effect.
- Create an accurate pattern, showing fine detail.
- Use a range of visual elements (line, shape, tone, colour, pattern, texture and form) to reflect the purpose of the work.

Key vocabulary

Layers, line, shape, composition, texture, accuracy, mono-prints and relief prints

Key skills

Question	Think critically about their own work and that of others and challenge thoughts and decisions
Suggest	Make suggestions and justify ideas for possible improvements to their own and others' work
Justify	Justify the decisions they make when composing pieces of art
Annotate	Make more detailed notes in sketchbooks based on observations, justifications and developments

Key artists

William Morris (1834-1896)

William Morris was a British textile designer, poet, artist, novelist, printer and socialist activist associated with the British Arts and Crafts Movement during the Industrial Revolution.

Orla Kiely

Orla Kiely, OBE is an Irish fashion designer based in London.